Bradford Plaza offers everyday convenience near one of the region's most desirable, high-income markets—minutes from the dining, culture, and university activity of West Chester.

THE WEST CHESTER ADVANTAGE

DOWNTOWN DRAW

Downtown West Chester is an established destination district supported by the West Chester Business Improvement District (BID), created to increase customer traffic, strengthen business retention/recruitment, and advocate for the downtown's interests.

"Downtown West Chester is a true regional draw—anchored by dining, shopping, and year-round programming that helps sustain strong visitation."

UNIVERSITY-DRIVEN ACTIVITY

West Chester University contributes daily foot traffic and a steady customer base, with total enrollment including 14,449 undergraduate and 2,722 graduate students

"University energy supports consistent weekday and weekend activity—benefitting convenience and service-oriented retail."

LIFESTYLE + DESTINATION PROXIMITY

Longwood Gardens is a major year-round attraction in nearby Kennett Square, known for seasonal displays, conservatories, and fountains.
