Chairman and Co-Founder William Farber’s 55-Year Milestone Reflects Levin Management’s Legacy of Continuity

Milestone underscores long-term leadership stability and a client-first culture

NORTH PLAINFIELD, N.J. (April 7, 2026) — Levin Management Corporation (LMC), a provider of third-party commercial real estate services, recognized Chairman and Co-Founder William A. Farber’s 55-year affiliation with the Levin organization — a milestone reflecting long-term stewardship and continuity for the clients the firm serves.

Farber joined the Levin organization in 1971 and later co-founded Levin Management Corporation in 1982 with Janice H. Levin, widow of pioneering shopping center developer Philip J. Levin.

“Bill’s tenure reflects steady stewardship and the values that guide our approach to client service and culture,” said Matthew K. Harding, chief executive officer of Levin Management Corporation. “That long-term perspective has helped shape a platform built on relationships, accountability and continuity.”

Farber has helped shape LMC’s evolution into a trusted third-party commercial real estate services provider. Today, the award-winning, privately held firm maintains a diversified, retail-focused portfolio of approximately 125 properties totaling 16 million square feet throughout the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic. While LMC continues to represent Levin family holdings, the firm primarily serves institutional, fiduciary and private property owners through a full-service platform spanning leasing, property management and related disciplines.

Over the years, LMC has supported clients through repositioning and redevelopment initiatives, pairing disciplined operations with leasing strategies designed to strengthen long-term performance.

LMC’s platform continues to emphasize:

- Integrated service delivery across leasing, property management, financial management and reporting, construction management and development, lease administration, marketing services, and acquisition/disposition consulting
- Long-term team culture, reflected in long-tenured professionals across departments

- Continued evolution of capabilities, including technology, operating efficiencies and sustainability-focused initiatives aligned with changing client needs

With a seasoned leadership team in place and a long-term view of the market, LMC remains focused on helping clients protect and enhance value through disciplined operations, strategic leasing and trusted advisory support.
